Found nearly all people hospitalized with COVID-19 develop virus-neutralizing antibodies within six days of testing positive.

Performed more than 7500 antibody tests by early May.

Developed an antibody test that issues results in an hour.

Worked around the clock for two weeks to develop a test to detect antibodies against the novel coronavirus.

Is conducting a study to test for antibodies in hospital workers and those with cancer.

Is conducting testing to isolate antibodies that neutralize the novel coronavirus.

Is conducting testing to isolate antibodies that neutralize the novel coronavirus.

Is rolling out a statewide program to test 250,000 healthcare workers and first responders in Arizona for antibodies.

Is researching which antibodies are the immune type that neutralize the virus.

Conducted testing that indicated many more LA County residents had COVID-19 antibodies than previously thought.

Developed a rapid sensitive antibody test for COVID-19.

Collaborated with AstraZeneca on new COVID-19 antibody research.