

As of December 6, 2021

INNOVATION

University of Utah Health Sciences Center is launching a climate resilience assessment in efforts to achieve carbon neutrality by 2050 and reduce greenhouse gas emissions by 50% by 2025.

https://sustainability.utah.edu/wp-content/uploads/sites/56/2021/06/UofU_climate-resilience-assessment.pdf

IMPLEMENTATION

University of Nebraska Medical Center is instituting a sustainability plan to achieve net zero building emissions through improved design and partnership with renewable utility providers. The University is creating accountability through transparency with progress tracking.

<https://dashboard.livegreennebraska.com/>

IMPLEMENTATION

University of Illinois Chicago is employing the Climate Action Implementation Plan – a refined cost-effective portfolio of solutions to achieve carbon neutrality by 2028. In seven strategic phases, UIC addresses a zero waste campus, net-zero water campus, biodiversity, and teaching and learning goals.

<https://sustainability.uic.edu/plans/caip/>

COMMUNITY

Augusta University is establishing an Enterprise-wide Sustainability Committee, “The Green Team,” to ensure sustainable principles and practices, optimize resource allocations, and achieve sustainability objectives.

<https://www.augusta.edu/green/>