

AAHCI Global Programs
Network (GPN)

Instructions

The Global Programs Network (GPN) is comprised of individuals in senior management positions who oversee their institution’s global activities. The GPN shares global networking and exchange programs; best practices and success stories; and explores additional resources and information on global operations, legal implications, and international collaboration.

As a GPN member, you have access to the AAHC International Collaborations Database (<http://www.aahcdc.org/Member-Center/International-Collaboration-Database>). This work sheet contains instructions for using this database.

III. Member Profiles

i. Search AAHC/AAHCI Member Profiles:

This page allows you to search for AAHC/I members based on criteria including location, areas of research, health professions education, and so on.

Once you've searched for the AAHC/AAHCI member based on the field(s) you've selected; you will receive a list of all institutions/members that qualify. At this point, you can click on the institution to view their profile.
